This image shows a full page of handwriting practice paper. It contains four identical sets of horizontal lines, each set consisting of three lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. These lines are designed to help children learn the correct height and placement of letters. The sets are arranged vertically down the page, with a small gap between each set.

This image shows a blank sheet of handwriting practice paper. It features four identical sets of horizontal guidelines arranged vertically. Each set includes three lines: a solid top line, a dashed midline, and a solid bottom line, providing a structured space for practicing letter formation and alignment.
